ANNUAL CONFERENCE | EXHIBITION | GALA DINNER

The REA's Organics Conference is THE annual industry conference for composting, anaerobic digestion and recycling organic materials to land. Industry comes together to hear about sector developments, from policy reforms to the latest research and developments combined with practical on-site information. The conference includes expert insights, inspiring speakers, and networking opportunities alongside vibrant exhibitor options. It's a perfect opportunity to meet many key organics recycling colleagues and do business.

If you'd like to get involved simply email sponsorship@r-e-a.net to find out more from Amalia Moca, Business Development Exec. For full conference details and delegate bookings see r-e-a.net/events
